Dear future generation,

This capsule has some important information about events that happened during my life time.

First of all, I would like to mention that more and more ~~more~~ countries are finally not being against the LGBTQ+ communities, and that their rights are being ~~protected~~ protected. As well as in some states of the USA it's even legal to marry someone of your own sex.

Secondly, I want to emphasize the fact that there is less discrimination against black people and people of colour. There is still a lot to be improved, but it became a lot easier for them to find good jobs and even run for president, mayor etc. I believe that it is very important because your race doesn't determine your personality.

I would also like to tell you about the ecological situation. More companies started using sustainable packaging which doesn't harm the nature as much as plastic does. Many popular clothing brands are fighting against overconsumption and using recyclable materials.

Well that's it! Use this mindfully and make your life better!

$$B: 2 + 3 + 2 + 1 = 8$$

$$C: 3 + 2 + 2 + 2 = 9$$
