Dear future generations, I hope your life is improving as the time passes by. As you know, every generation has its own beliefs, values and things they cherish. The aim of this message is to tell you about three things I consider most significant. Namely, family photo album, my old toys and a new camera.

Why the album and camera are important to me? Firstly, the album is a wonderful tool which connects me with past generations and reminds me of my "roots". I am strongly convinced that remembering past and cherishing it is what makes us humane, and helps to find ~~exactly~~ our place in this fast-changing world.

Secondly, ~~the~~ camera enables me to capture valuable moments of my life so that when I grow old I could have a look at ~~the~~ pictures and remember all happy moments vividly.

Toys have a special place in my room and my heart. When it seems that the world is turning, they "support" me; allow to "have a
