5	I think life is hard. In my opinion, the worst period of life is when you are a teenager, because you should choose future career, understand yourself, don't argue with parents. It is really hard. Also, you have lots of exams. Sometimes you can't handle with everything, but despite this, you should strive for your goal.

20	This text deals with relationship between parents and their grown children. Once they turn 16 they are known as "care leavers". Their life maybe hard. Although the state now offers a "personal adviser". The government also decided to give a UBI to care leavers, which causes understandable resentment among those who have to work. But parents find this idea plausible.	lex sp gr syntax
