Hello, people of ^{the} future! I hope that you live in a much better world, than we, people of the 21st century do.

P. Today crypto currencies had become a big thing and many people consider it to be the currency of the future. I ~~don't~~ can't know for sure, but it could have affected the bank systems and currencies in the nearest future.

P. Also I hope that there are no wars in future, ~~because~~ and all of the countries live in peace. Recently the relationships between the countries had become ~~more~~ tight and I don't even know what to think. I hope the people of future will learn from the mistakes of the previous generations.

P. Also in 2021 people managed to ~~do~~ make the clone of a dog, but studies about it were quit due to the moral principles of scientist community. But I think that can be used in the future!

So many lives can be saved by cloning and transplanting organs and parts of the body!

This is the message from the past, I think you may find some of my points ridiculous, but I believe in the best future of the world we live in P.

With love P.
