5	I think that the best stage of life is either when you're fit and you don't have to care about anything, or it's when you're successful, have a country house where you can spend time with friends, drinking different exotic types of wine. In that case, you also don't have much to care about because you run a successful business or have a good career, for instance. The most important thing of that stage is that you can spend enough time with your family, like grandchildren. wh
