SP Dear future generations, I hope you are all doing great. Many interesting things ^{have} happened throughout ~~last~~ ^{past} years, so I'd like to tell you about the most striking events.

w.w. First of all, I'd like to mention the pandemic, which began because of a virus called COVID-19. During these times we had to self-isolate ourselves from our ~~friends~~, families and other people, as the disease was highly contagious. We still have to wear masks in public places and use ~~hand~~ sanitizers in order to prevent ^{the} spreading of the virus. However, many scientists came up with vaccines against COVID, and our world became a safer and healthier place, ~~so~~ so this event is also significant.

2 It's a common knowledge that global warming is a burning issue ~~in 2019~~ and a great example of its impact ~~can~~ ^{could} be seen ~~everywhere~~, ~~especially~~ in Australia. The major part of the continent was covered in fire and not only animals were harmed, but also humans. The problem wasn't solved quickly, so ~~the~~ ^{of} volunteers from all over the world helped animals to find ~~new~~ new habitats and ~~even~~ provide free medical help ~~and food~~ for affected people. I think, that these volunteers are real heroes and future generations should look up to ~~the~~ them.

To conclude, I think that people, living in future, should take ~~the~~ lessons of the past and not make the same mistakes as we did.

① thanks to ~~the~~ coronavirus,

$$A: 1+1+2 = 4$$

$$B: 2+3+3+1 = 9$$

$$C: 1+2+1+1 = 5$$

① The pandemic turned out to be a great problems and made us think how to solve them.

① ~~the~~ ② forestfires in Australia drew our attention to serious environmental
