Dear future generation! Probably your world is full of new technologies and services, which made your life very convenient and joyful. However, it is crucial to acknowledge the advice and experiences of the past generations. That is why I am writing to you. In my letter I will tell you about three impactful events that happened during my lifetime.

The first one is, undoubtedly COVID-19. This world pandemic took many lives, which made us deeply appreciate our family and friends. Now we realize that spending time with them is the most precious thing we have.

Instagram stories have also impacted our world. Now we know much more about other people's lives and can share every little event with the whole world. A beautiful cup of coffee, an exciting trip, or just our thoughts can be seen by everyone, if the person posting it wants it.

A connective Military conflict between Russia and Ukraine has affected our generation. We realized how fragile the peace is and how precious our casual days are. Days when we just go to work or
