Dear future generations,

As you may already know, our world faces constant changes regarding different spheres of life. My generation isn't an exception. I'd like to describe three of the most significant events that changed our life.

First of all, I would like to talk about the pandemic. At the beginning of 2020 a very unusual virus, COVID-19, struck our Earth. This disease changed the way we lived: aerocommunication was stopped, people had to work from home and schools were online. We had to constantly wear masks and gloves and disinfect the surfaces around us.

Second of all, at the beginning of the second decade of the 21st century our planet had to face a lot of catastrophic issues such as volcanoes erupting, constant earthquakes and fires all over the world. All of this had a very serious impact on the well-being of the Earth.

By saying this, I can finally move to my last event: the terrorist attack of the Twin Towers on the 11th September 2001. This event deeply affected the political game in the whole world by changing it forever, a lot of people died and a lot had to carry the grief of loss.

In conclusion, I must say that I hope everything will change for the best.

Best wishes,

Your friend from the past
