Вариант № 1

16 (30)	1) I had already passed the first test with what Miss Monday had described as flying colours. (2) This was not a problem for me. (3) I feared Miss Monday would realize that I was unable to follow every verse line by line. (4) Although I was able to turn to the correct page in the psalm book as I could now count from one to a hundred, I feared Miss Monday would realize that I was unable to follow every verse line by line. (5) The choir mistress turned a blind eye to the fact that I placed theft ahead of murder, couldn't spell "adultery", and certainly didn't know what it meant. (6) On Sundays I was transported into another world.
17 (50)	1) The phrase that shows it is... By this time, by the time of Miss Monday's next test, the end of our second month. (2) Only after two other miscreants were summarily dismissed for lesser offences did I realize just how exceptional my voice must be. (3) Chattering during the sermon, sucking a gobstopper and playing conkers during the "Nunc Dimittis". (4) It meant that a person with a bronze medalion of the virgin Mother around their neck had been selected as a treble soloist. (5) It suggests that Harry was really excited about it, but wasn't sure that he was good enough to be in this position.
18 (2,50) ast	1) she wrapping him in a blanket. (2) she didn't let them him pass her next test. (3) pretended not to notice. (4) decided to name us. (5) with a wavy version of piccadilly (a thing that goes around your neck).
19 (30)	1) much harder, requiring. (2) being a grown-up elderly people we have to take care of and respect. (3) mentoring quoting. (4) made to go away. (5) shame.
20 ast at (20) 56 слов	To be honest, I would suggest the title, "Harry from the choir". I think it's humorous, but appropriate. First of all, his name is really Harry, he is a talented young gifted boy with a gifted voice and he is a storyteller. Second of all, the story itself takes place in the choir, so my suggestion makes sense.

Hi everyone!

I hope you are well.

Initially, I would like to introduce myself. My name is Tanya, I'm 16, and I'm sending this message in order to inform you about some things that are happening in the world right now. These are all serious and important events, so, please, pay attention to my words!

First of all, Covid-19. I'm not sure if you've heard about it, but, basically, it's a virus that started a global pandemic back in 2019. Well, it still plays a huge role in our lives, but, hopefully, everything will get better soon as some doctors and scientists are saying that ~~it~~ it tends to become less dangerous, but seasonal and similar to the flu.

Second of all, the war. No, it's not global, but it affects everyone, especially Russia and Ukraine. However, I'm not a politician, so I won't express my personal thoughts on this topic, but I will say that the war itself is a violent, cruel, troubling event, so try to avoid it in the future in order to save millions of innocent ~~brave~~ people.

Thirdly, ~~the~~ Global Warming. I hope things ~~don't~~ won't become worse in your future. In this case, we need to ~~stop~~ ^{slow down} it: we will try our best to do it, but you need to help us continue fighting against ~~such~~ a huge ecological problem. Unfortunately, it's not possible to stop it, but it's in our hands to play for win in some time.

To sum up, be brave and act ~~smart~~ ^{reasonably}. Take care!
~~All the with love,~~ love
