At Dear People of Earth,

If you are reading this message it means that I am long gone. I am writing this letter and putting it in a time capsule so you can know more about

At noaning 2020s.

I bet life on the planet has changed a whole lot!

Do you still use smartphones? Because we are obsessed with it, can't go anywhere without one!

Smart phone is the most significant invention of the 21st century, though for you it is probably old news.

We are able to contact our close ones at any given time, ~~we~~ how wonderful!

Smartphones ~~were~~ ^{are} not the only thing you can't leave for your home without, you ~~were~~ ^{are} ought to wear a mask practically everywhere because of ~~so~~ Covid.

At During these years of pandemic, we have used millions and millions of masks. That is probably what we're going to be remembered for.

Obviously, our century is called the century of inventions. An inventor, Elon Musk, has recently ^{came} up with an e-car, it ^{charges} like a phone and doesn't require any gas, which means that e-car is a transport that doesn't pollute the environment. How tough it must be for you to deal with the pollution!

I suppose that is it for the letter. I ask you to do one thing: protect the environment and the planet whatever it takes.
