5	As for me, almost ^{well} not nothing makes me nervous. Nothing, except for some very important exams. And that's very strange, because I know I have prepared well, so there shouldn't be any reason to be scared! However, the fear exists. Of course, I try to deal with it, but how I can defeat it when I don't know the cause?

3	20 Nowadays, scientists think that the danger of a collision with an asteroid is not very hazardous. Some lab experiments showed we can nudge their orbits. What's more, there's a new mirror in Chile building, so we can find a lot of more new asteroids and predict their orbits. Though, there'll be even more studies soon.	a greater amount of
