17	1) Young, fashionable types came in carriages... 2) Maids and housekeepers came for their mistresses. And inquiries came from restaurants, hotels, and stores. 3) Panicked, Fiona had run to the printer to order more boxes and then to Stuart to tell him to get her more tea 1) Take a portion of your profits, invest it wisely, and before you know it you'll have the money you need to open your tearoom. 2) Fiona had no time to be offended; she'd been promptly deluged with customers.
18	1) was pleased with the fact — 2) there were a lot of customers + 3) to hang out — 4) to take the orders when customers call — 5) decided 0,5
19	1) high-class 2) written 0,5 3) dear — 4) talked about + 5) packed with —
20	"Money begets money" I guess it is a good title because the whole story is about a woman who invested money to open her own tearoom. Her brother gave her a piece of advice which she followed and became successful. He said that she needed to take a portion of profits, invest it. Also, it was his phrase: "... money begets money".
17	3) Fiona had to pack tea herself because there were so many customers who wanted to buy it. 4) а) Visored men in vests and shirtsleeves sat at the desks, wiping sweat from their faces and rapidly dipping their pens in ink pots, scribbling furiously. б) Brokers ran back and forth, shouting at the clerks

The Best Teacher of the Year

I suggest ~~my~~ nominating my English teacher, Anna Alexandrovna, as the best teacher of the year. Firstly, she has a lot of very useful and necessary qualifications. She always tries to be better. She is amazingly motivated and can motivate others. Secondly, she has all traits that a good teacher must have: kindness, the ability to make everyone do what she needs. I guess, she has that „teaching talent", because she is very patient and can explain the material well.

To prove my words, I can provide some examples. ~~I~~ I have a lesson with her twice a week. Even though we study really hard and do a lot of exercises, I don't feel like I'm under pressure. She can make an atmosphere at the lesson very nice and calm so I can concentrate. If I feel tired and frustrated, she takes time to cheer me up and give some support. This shows that she is a good teacher — she ~~doesn't~~ doesn't only teach, but also cares about her students.

As for ~~the~~ the examples of her professional expertise, I can say that she always knows everything about the current changes in the state exam; she gathers information and gives it to us. ~~She knows about the latest things that changed~~. This ability is very useful for her students because it helps to pass exams with the highest ~~score~~ score. She is definitely the person who is ~~the best~~ the best teacher of the year. Her character, ~~knowledge~~ skills and language knowledge are unbelievable.
