17	① Brantain had been courting Nathalie for two weeks. ② It depends only upon a good deal if she ever forgives him. ③ I came in with your brother as I always do. ④ At the beginning of the conversation there was a ray of hope mingled with the almost comical misery of his expression. By the middle, still was a misery in Brantain's round guileless face. At the end his face was radiant. ⑤ Nathalie's triumphant face shows that the conversation went off well.

ТВОРЧЕСКОЕ ЗАДАНИЕ

People have lots of needs. We can't live without food, water sleep. We need all of that to make our body function well. However, our ~~hearts~~<sup>brains</sup> also have such needs.

Humans are social creatures. We need to communicate with each other. Communication means taking information, experience from one person to another. So I can say that communication leads to progress.

Humans want to get every thing new: Knowledge, experience, ~~locations~~. If one day people can get a message from other intelligent life forms from other planets ~~it~~ will mean that we can make a new Union. These aliens may help us to study space, may provide us with new technologies. Friendship with aliens may help people on the Earth to progress faster.

~~However~~, Most of all everyone is aware of Earth ecological problems: there are less still water, less oxygen, petrol from year to year. And may be one day humans will need to try to find another planed with appropriate conditions. In this case, contact with aliens can be the most important point in human existing question.

From my point of view, messages should be sent to other civilizations. It can bring lots of pros and even save human race.
