20	Title: "MUSIC OF THE HEART" Explanation: Such a title perfectly represents the parallel connection of the main heroine's mood to the choice of music that the students will perform: when the heroine is sad, the the song is equally gloomy, and when she is happy, the music is warm and an joyful. The word "heart" in the title alludes to the love story represented in the text.

ТВОРЧЕСКОЕ ЗАДАНИЕ

Chat GPT has become an integral part of our lives, not only providing us with all the needed information, but also successfully completing creative tasks for us. While the majority extols the virtues of this invention, some people are convinced that it will ruin both education and critical thinking of people ours. I want to provide several arguments against such a view point, as I strongly disagree with it.

Firstly, Chat GPT allowed students to find information fast, garnering only required facts and structuring them efficiently. On top of that, this AI provided teachers with an opportunity to create unique and challenging tasks without dedicating too much time to it. Considering both of these facts, educational system only benefits from the use of Chat GPT, counter to the opinion of its detrimental effect on learning.

Secondly, the "demise" of critical thinking thanks to Chat GPT is also quite unimaginable, because in reality, this app's developers encourage their users to double-check the important information provided by the bot. The need to do so because it may mislead them. This need to always be careful with the facts only stimulates critical thinking rather than hinders it. Instead of hindering it, which debunks another myth about Chat GPT.

All in all, this AI is a powerful tool that
