4) Pay no attention to letter, must have been mad - Basil:

16	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1) someone who stood there bleeding to death, pierced to the heart by such a letter"2) She knew perfectly well what they were thinking: "Meady is in a wax"3) With the One could scarcely help shuddering. the older girls were crimson, the younger ones began to cry.4) the word "disgust" was scratched out lightly and "regret" written over the top.
17	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1) the fact that Basil directly said the idea of marriage filled him with disgust.2) Miss Meadows was cheered up by the final letter thus felt started feeling joyful and chose the appropriate piece of music.3) Because she was 5 years older than her fiancée.4) sentence 43: "On the wings of love, of hope, of joy..."5.51: Miss Meadows' voice sounded full, glowing with expression.
18	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1) walked in a fast pace through the corridors.2) deeply touched3) a monotonous, cold manner of speech4) to expect denouncement but instead get positive feedback.5) threw a rapid glance, similar to that of a laser.
19	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1) pressure2) inhaling air3) rushed4) corridor5) in pain
20	"Drama class filled with emotions" Obviously, this title refers to the feelings of Miss Meadows. She went through from grief to joy, all during one drama class, therefore had an effect on the overall mood of her students and the tone of lesson in general.

ТВОРЧЕСКОЕ ЗАДАНИЕ

Although it's widely considered that neural networks such as Chat GPT may have a tremendous effect on education and critical thinking, even leading to their downfall, I strongly disagree with that belief.

As to my awareness, these days tools like Chat GPT are doing the opposite to of harming humans — they are helping us perform the mundane actions that we used to have to do manually before, taking the ~~routine away~~ dragging us away from the routine. One of such things is driving cars. A couple dozens of years before that would have probably sounded weird and unrealistic, but fast forward twenty years and it's something you can see in reality.

On the flipside, one might say, with things like Chat GPT we don't have to really use our brains anymore, thus education is no longer needed. But that claim fails basic reality checks. Artificial intelligence is being actively integrated into education, ~~making~~ ^{keeping} students of all ages motivated and encouraged to do their studies by letting them experience the "future" first-hand. Moreover, opposing to the claim above, AI actually makes us use our brains more, as it takes definitely takes some critical thinking skills to interact with neural networks and keep up with the pace of their development.

Overall, it's just irrational to ~~believe the~~ think of Chat GPT as of a threat to humanity. Instead, all of us should learn adapt to reality.
