Вариант № 1

16	1) It was as cold and alien as Malaysia had seemed six years before... time and affection had served to make it the reality and her life in London merely the hopefully forgotten past. 2) ... She had thought she was going to hate living there... 3) "Did I really help because Mummy said I was probably more nuisance than I was worth?" 4) In the beginning, this knowledge had caused Julie no little anxiety.
17	1) She spent six years there. 2) She helped the stewardess. 3) She possessed "that certain something" that singled her out. 4) ... Julie hugged her coat closer about her suddenly, feeling cold and apprehensive. ... She wanted to delay the moment when she must take up contact with Michael's family...
18	1) she had 2) eyes moving excitedly 3) lips turned into a smile 4) group of people 5) grabbed her hand
19	1) dull 2) mysteriously 3) bothersome 4) se doubtful 5) quick
20	I think the best title for this text would be "The journey" "Meeting his family". The reason for choosing this title is the extract's main focus. The main problem that arises is Julie meeting her husband's family, the events prior simply lead up to this moment and explain the situation.

ТВОРЧЕСКОЕ ЗАДАНИЕ

Chat GPT has become a tool that is known worldwide and as a result many people have wondered whether it could lead to the downfall of education and critical thinking. While I do think that large language models are able to replace educators someday, I also believe that human ingenuity will never be replaced.

The downfall of critical thinking will never come because it requires something that only a person can have, not an AI. That "something" might be the ability to feel, but it is impossible to know for sure. A language model can never have this mysterious ability because it is a mere piece of code that will never experience a sensation or thought.

However, replacing educators, such as teachers, is relatively achievable. There are already LLMs out there that do a decent job at this task. This is possible due to the fact that an AI has to only follow the instructions, it does not have to create anything new or think differently. That is why the downfall of education should be a concern.

In conclusion, while AI can replace teachers with its current capabilities, critical thinking is a skill exclusive to the human mind. Thus, artificial intelligence will never lead to the downfall of critical thinking.
