16	"Her 1)" .. her life in London merely the forgotten past." "It was as cold and alien as Malaysia had scented six years before..." 2) when she had first seen it, she had thought she was going to hate living there, hate everything about her new life..." 3) Did I really help because Mummy said I was probably more nuisance than worth? 4) In the beginning, this knowledge had caused Julie no little anxiety..."
17	"...when she had first seen it, she had thought she was going to hate living there, hate everything about her new life..." 1) six years 2) handing out magazines 3) Emma can attract everyone's attention 4) "She wanted to delay the moment when she must take up contact again with Michael's family" "Julie hugged her coat closer about her suddenly, feeling cold and apprehensive"
18	"Did I really help because Mummy said I was probably more nuisance than I was worth?" 1) it was her duty 2) her eyes moved anxiously 3) she smiled 4) a group 5) grabbed her hand demanding attention
19	1) bland 2) amused 3) long 4) uneasy 5) shortly
20	A suitable title for this story would be "The special little girl". I suggest this particular name because throughout the story the main focus moves from the narrator, Julie, to one of the other characters - Emma. Emma is described as a special individual who can attract attention from everyone and I want to highlight her ability in the title.

ТВОРЧЕСКОЕ ЗАДАНИЕ

I completely agree with the given statement. ~~The usage~~ ~~of~~ In my opinion, people who rely on AI and use ~~it~~ it to write text, essays and speeches for them instead of doing that themselves do not have enough experience in writing and thus ~~can't~~ ^{can not} be called actually educated. Being able to form a thought and write it out as a text is a very important quality and it comes with a lot of practice. Those who do not think for themselves and use chat GPT lack this ability and they can become addicted to it and unable to communicate without an AI - they won't be able to form a thought and say it out loud as a sentence.

Another thing about an AI is that it does not have an opinion: it is a program, it does not have a character or experience. Relying on it to form your own opinion is illogical and can lead to inability to actually think for yourself and lack of important life skills such as critical thinking.

Overall, to conclude, I think the increasing popularity of using AI amongst young people is dangerous and should be strictly controlled.
