16	1) someone who stood there...pierced to the heart 2) "Mealy is in a wax." 3) began to feel positively frightened The older girls were crimson; some of the younger ones began to cry 4) must have been mad
17	1) Basil mentioned that the awful letter he had sent earlier "Mealy is in a wax." didn't mean anything and that surprised Miss Meadows. 2) when she was distressed, the music was gloomy and as she got happy the music got more cheerful ("warm, joyful") 3) Because she was older than her fiancée. 4) On the wings of love, of hope, of joy... It ought to sound warm, joyful, eager."
18	1) walk down the gloomy halls 2) heartbroken 3) emotionless manner 4) to be absolutely scared 5) glared
19	1) darkness 2) sighing 3) returned 4) row 5) broody
20	Meaningless heartbreak. I think such a name will be suitable for the story because the letter left Miss Meadows in shock, her dreams of marrying Basil shattered, her heart broken, while he only wrote that because he was in a bad mood, in the heat of the moment. Consequently Miss Meadows' sorrow was for nothing.

ТВОРЧЕСКОЕ ЗАДАНИЕ

Being a student, I see many of my classmates use chat GPT for studying. And while it can write an essay for you or do your homework, most pupils still do such tasks themselves. They only resort to the help of chat GPT when searching for a point of view or a style of writing other than their own, to make their essays more interesting and enjoyable to read, to practice and improve.

In my opinion most pupils study for themselves and not for the grades as life without studying and learning get boring and exhausting. That is why people will always be drawn to gaining knowledge and learning, we simply cannot imagine our life without it. Life is all about experiences which always equal learning something new. Even after graduating, every human being has to learn something every day, be it the specifics of the work they're required to do or how to use an e-book.

Still, taking into account everything I previously said, for some, the AI technologies may be too tempting, those will get lazier by day but they are not the majority of people. I think, and degradation of the humankind is a problem
