5	Most sea animals can sense the electric or magnetic fields which allow them to navigate without using any devices such as compasses or maps. In fact, these marine creatures include maps in themselves. Embrassing such an ability is worth doing because it would give an advantage to a man-kind and improve our navigation skills.

Вариант № 2

16	1) F; But the task of adding almost as much as the entire generating capacity of America every year looks increasingly daunting (3). 2) T; Siemens Energy was rescued by a loan guarantee from the German government. 3) F; too little development is happening in the global south, even though the demand for electricity <sup>there is surging (11)</sup> 4) F; Solar panels are already more than twice as expensive in America as elsewhere, mostly owing to anti-dumping duties on Chinese suppliers. (16) 5) F; The EC is considering investigating Chinese turbine-markets; India, too, plans to tighten local-content rules for solar projects (16, 19-20)
17	1) Delegates from 118 countries have pledged to raise global renewable-energy capacity. 2) They're struggling because manufacturers rushed out bigger and more powerful models, also high interest rates increase cost, which makes projects less profitable. 3) The biggest problems are: 1) high cost of production; 2) lack of investments; 3) delays in approval. 4) Governments should stop their protectionism policy, so it would be easier for companies to enter new markets. Also the approval time should be decreased, so the projects are built when they're still profitable (not to let the situation change). 5) Governments must make their markets open for this industry, approval time should <sup>must be decreased</sup> in order to solve this crisis.
18	1) suffering difficult difficulties. 2) forbids spending money (using) 3) to take responsibility for some of the risks. 4) to make rules rules more strict. 5) to understand; to admit the fact.
19	1) to promise to give 2) to increase 3) a lack of 4) products, devices 5) actively, without delay
20	Even though, governments from all over the world pledge to decarbonise their industry, the green energy companies are suffering from multiple problems, such as lack of investments, slow approval time, protectionism policy, high interest rates etc. To solve this crisis strict rules should be cancelled, markets should be opened. These changes will lead to higher returns, lower prices for energy and the decarbonisation of our planet.
