16	1) bleeding to death, pierced to the heart; 2) "Mealy is in a wax"; 3) the younger girls began to feel positively frightened; the older girls were crimson; 4) must have been mad.
17	1) A word "disgust", which was scratched out. 2) Straightly. 3) Because they did not expect her mood to change so fast and radical. 4) She couldn't ^{not} take her eyes off the telegram. On the wings of hope, of love, of joy.
18	1) to be under emotional pressure; 2) to to experience very intensive emotions; 3) a very strict emotionless voice; 4) a mixture of being surprised and frightened; 5) glance paid attention at;
19	1) a concern; 2) glancing; 3) returned; 4) teacher's a forescene; 5) serious.
20	Music of love goes up and down This title includes a metaphor ("music of love") which is dedicated to the main character's profession. Moreover, the words "up and down" are suitable not only for music, but also for Miss Meadows' mood in the text. I deem this title very beautiful, eye-catching and creative.

ТВОРЧЕСКОЕ ЗАДАНИЕ

Nowadays there are multiple discussions led about Chat GPT and its impact on educational system. Some people even deem that AI technologies may lead to the downfall of critical thinking. Personally I hardly disagree ~~with~~ with them on this point.

First of all, in my opinion Chat GPT is rather an opportunity for education than a threat. It is hard to deny that AI is a great tool which can help with various tasks: from writing an essay to being a pen friend. However, it is very important to let schoolchildren and students know that there are still many tasks they have to complete on their own in order to learn something new and get ~~a~~ useful skills.

~~However,~~ ^{It is known that} it may be uneasy to engage students not to use Chat GPT while completing their homework. On this point I have an idea: ~~that~~ ^{current} AI is very far from perfect. That is why it is essential to add more creative and challenging tasks to the educational programme, for instance art lessons or practice oriented ^{to} scientific research.

Furthermore, I deem that learning to use Chat GPT would be a great addition to an IT course. ~~Along~~ Along with getting new experience with AI, student will learn more about ethics of using Chat GPT in the university or on a future job.

In conclusion I would like to say that new technologies have always been an object of fear and misunderstanding, especially among people from elder generations.
However, nowadays gadgets are widespread at schools ~~and~~ and help students to express themselves in the most creative way.
I hope ~~it~~ Chat GPT will also find ~~its~~ its place in our educational system.
