20	Love affects. I think this is the best title for the story, as it contains the main idea of this text. Love affects your mood and behaviour, that is greatly shown in this text, when Miss Meadows was cross and disappointed at first, because of her lover. And after him asking for forgiveness she became happy and pleased.

ТВОРЧЕСКОЕ ЗАДАНИЕ

Nowadays chat GPT is incredibly popular among young people. This invention helps us create new ideas, write various texts and even communicate with AI, discussing all the themes we want to. All this may seem rather negative to someone, but in this essay I will try to defend chat GPT as one of the greatest inventions of this century.

Firstly, I often use chat GPT for inspiration in painting. It helps me to create new models and situations I would like to draw. Secondly, chat GPT is not fully modernized and ready for all the tasks. So, yeah, it can help students to write essays or even science works but the results will be quite disappointing in most cases, so students ~~would~~ will have to correct these mistakes all by themselves. Thirdly, chat GPT is always neutral in politics and other similar spheres, which require personal opinion, so people have to think and make decisions themselves, developing their critical thinking.

In conclusion, I believe that chat GPT is not really dangerous or that it affects the minds of people too much. I think it is the compelling and wonderful invention that helps people increase the amount of knowledge and creativity in their minds.
