Вариант № 1

16	1) 'it was cold and alien...' , 'her life in London merely the hopefully forgotten past.' 2) 'she had thought she was going to hate living there, hate everything about her new life...' 3) 'Did I really help because Mummy said I was probably more nuisance than I was worth?' 4) 'This knowledge had caused Julie no little anxiety.' 5)
17	1) Julie spent six years outside the UK. 2) Emma was handing out magazines during the flight. 3) Emma attracted attention wherever she went. It was a family resemblance. 4) 'She wanted to delay the moment when she must take up contact again with Michael's family.' , it was... not something that belonged exclusively to Emma's father'.
18	1) she herself had to 2) moving her eyes quickly 3) smiled slightly 4) a crowd of people 5) squeezed her hand
19	1) gloomy 2) naughtily 3) difficult 4) unwelcoming 5) fleeting
20	Title: A Long Way "Home" I think that this title is the most suitable and appropriate as it gives enough information to understand the topic and the plot of the text. Since Julie doesn't consider London her real home anymore, I decided to address it as "home". Besides, the journey was surely felt like an eternity (very long).

ТВОРЧЕСКОЕ ЗАДАНИЕ

The development of artificial intelligence has brought many arguably beneficial changes to our lives. Chat GPT is one of them. As many believe that it may lead to the downfall of education and critical thinking, its positive influence on people is controversial. I agree with this idea because this has already resulted in the increase of students cheating during exams or tests and also because people have become lazier and don't even want to solve easy problems by themselves.

Chat GPT has become widely popular among students who often use it to find answers for their homework. Because Chat GPT has a splendid ability to read all kinds of texts, many students avail it. This led to the inferioration of the marking system. Besides, due to this students are discouraged from studying.

Furthermore, Chat GPT has a negative impact on the people's behavior. They'd like to spend time in idleness and try to minimize their efforts in looking up information. For example, nowadays, people would rather let Chat GPT solve a problem for them than try to look into it themselves.

In conclusion, it is highly important to recognize the main function of Chat GPT and use it reasonably. This way it will influence people in a positive way.
