Food wastage has become a formidable problem these days. Millions of tons of food are thrown away every day. But why does this happen?

In my opinion, food wastage is ⁱⁿ ~~as one of the~~ consequences of overconsumption culture. The Internet alongside with social media encourages us to ~~buy more and more~~ ^{always buy extra}. Such agitation often leads to people "buying more than they can chew" and throwing the rest away. The other reason might lie in mentality. I believe that children should be taught to respect food, not to waste it. I've ~~been~~ ^{even} witnessed people at my school throwing plates ~~worth~~ ^{worth} of food they've barely touched straight into the trash bin. ~~Most of them don't even pay for their school lunch as a measure of receive social support, so the school lunch is free for them, but they choose to waste instead of offering to someone else.~~ Meanwhile, people in the poorest regions of the Philippines have to resort to "pac-pac" — a "dish", ~~made from food which is basically food leftovers found in the trash bins, which are then fried or boiled to kill bacteria.~~ made from ~~food~~ fried or boiled food leftovers found in the trash. I ~~was shocked~~ ^{couldn't believe} ~~couldn't believe my ears~~ when I ~~first~~ ^{first} ~~heard~~ ^{learned} about it.

Overall, things like "pac-pac" should ~~definitely not~~ ^{never} exist. We must buy only as much as we can consume and respect the food we ~~buy~~ purchase. It's always better to buy more afterwards than to throw things away. ~~I think it's the only way to reduce food wastage.~~ ~~I think that food wastage is a problem that should be dealt with and this is the only way to reduce the amount of waste.~~ I consider

Some said she had money of her own..." 3) he "...he could hear Mr. Baxter say, "This is just like the fairy stories you used to tell me..."
17	1) On week-days Mrs. Baxter visited her patients and her daughter attended the local school. In the evening they'd always show up at the station at 5:15 and wait for a train from San Francisco. 2) Because it would mean all the things he believed in, such as love, hope or faith being counted for nothing. 3) "... the thin, haggard man who got off the train after everyone else. The man was handsome, but gaunt. He walked with the help of a cane."

19	1) notice 2) amount part 3) smile 4) st sp short-legged 5) see off
20	I believe "5:15 from San Francisco" would make a nice title for the story. I find this title accurate, as it introduces the setting of the story. It's also not too straightforward because it does not contain spoilers. But most importantly, the title is intriguing, as it makes the reader curious about the plot.
