ТВОРЧЕСКОЕ ЗАДАНИЕ (лист 1)

ВАРИАНТ № 1

Perpetual matter of Food Scarcity

Living conditions all over the world have been enhanced substantially over the course of history. However, world hunger is ^{the} one disaster yet to be solved.

Extensive ^{by scientists} research on the topic has been conducted. Personally, I believe that past colonisation of many countries is one of the main reasons of ~~for~~ their poverty and consequent starvation. Decades and even centuries of imposed labour and resource export have left chaos in their wake. Furthermore, monopolies are still taking advantage of the ruins of exploited civilizations, hampering the process of building equity.

One solution possible is creating globally-funded programs aimed at rebuilding economies of the so-called "third world countries." From my standpoint, compensation for the disrupted timeline of development of such countries is essential. Another measure ^{taken} can be spreading awareness worldwide. Alas, the level of literacy ~~nowadays~~ is quite low concerning such concepts as poaching, modern slavery or world hunger is quite low, because many consider these issues long resolved. Tiniest donations ~~in~~ will change make a difference, and combined efforts will change the current situation dramatically.

In conclusion, it is a shame how unevenly wealth is concentrated all over the world nowadays.
Distributing money among the ones who truly need it might be the solution to a whole list of present concerns of humankind.
