ВАРИАНТ № 1

THE CAUSES OF FOOD SCARCITY AND POSSIBLE SOLUTIONS

Food scarcity is one of the main problems in ~~many~~ developing countries. It leads to world hunger and considerably contributes to death rates in ~~those countries~~ many regions. So, this problem should not be underestimated.

There are many causes of food scarcity. First, many poor countries' climates are not suitable for agriculture. For instance, in Africa it is too hot for crops such as wheat. Moreover, governments in the developing world are ~~small~~ often corrupt and do nothing to resolve the food crisis as they are more focused on ensuring ^{their own} ~~the~~ well-being.

One possible solution to this problem is establishing a charity organisation which will provide food to poor countries. Another solution requires sending special equipment to ~~the~~ regions with extreme weather conditions. For example, an irrigation system would aid in making dry soil wetter and thus more suitable for growing vegetables. Finally, leaders of corrupt governments should be prosecuted, ~~in order to~~ ~~establish democratic~~ which would allow many countries to ~~develop~~ develop democratic societies.

In conclusion, food scarcity is a serious problem which ~~requires multiple approaches~~ ~~is cause~~ can be attributed many different factors. So, the solution to it requires multiple approaches. However, the initial step is to raise awareness of the existence of such a problem.

16	1) The humidity throughout the long day had been exhausting and not even the air conditioning could cope entirely with the damp heat. 2) Rebecca emerged from her patient's room and closed the door thankfully. Adele had been particularly trying... ...filled with the constant demands of a fractious, unhappy woman. 3) Rebecca swam strongly out to where the water deepened to dappled green and turning on her back floated for a while, her hair spread like sea-weed around her.
17	1) She had been her nurse for two years. 2) She was in her late twenties. 3) Because nobody else came ^{came} to the lagoon, so Rebecca was the only person there. 4) Adele had problems with her heart. 5) Rebecca agreed to become Adele's nurse because she wanted to escape from a bad situation.
18	1) breeze sprang up - a cool light ^{not} wind appeared ^{that was} very strong appeared. 2) as her due - as what she was entitled to. 3) congenital weakness - an illness acquired from birth. 4) particular sanctuary - a place where one can relax in solitude. 5) to face the day - to start one's daily tasks, ^{or chores} usually not very pleasant ones.
19	1) trying - demanding 2) averse - disliking 3) fractious - sour 4) languid - gaunt 5) bleaching - whitening
20	I believe the best title for this story would be 'A Hellish Job in Paradise'. The tropical island where Rebecca lives is described as a very very peaceful and beautiful place, however, her job is tough. This title emphasizes the contrast by using the antonyms 'Hell' and 'Paradise' and grabs the reader's attention.
