Lack ~~of~~ of food is that problem that many people all over the world are facing nowadays. Residents of African regions are particularly exposed to such a problem. One factor that can cause food deficiency is that some dwellers of various countries merely cannot afford enough food because of the lack of money. Moreover, sometimes people do not approach the process of consumption wisely and remain ~~in~~ dissatisfied even though they can afford to purchase enough goods.

As for the solutions, I would mention ~~providing~~ organising educational courses on how to consume properly for children at schools ~~at~~ and for students at universities. Adults should be aware of the problem as well and educate their children at home, so I would take organising different workshops ~~about food~~ into account. The ~~governments~~ governments of those countries the dwellers of which suffer from food shortage should encourage the residents to produce crops themselves at least to make the ends meet.

In conclusion, I would mention that the problem of food deficiency is of vast importance for everyone and should be constantly discussed at schools and ~~on~~ other institutions to make everyone realise how significant the issue is and how urgently it needs to be dealt with. I firmly believe that the ideas I proposed will ^{win} ~~meet~~ the government's approval and will make the process of solving the problem more efficient.

16	1. The humidity throughout the long day had been exhausting and not even the air conditioning could cope entirely with the damp heat. 2. "a fractious, unhappy woman"/ "she knew that Adele would not appreciate such sentiments"/ "she was naturally averse to her sisters" 3. Rebecca swam strongly to out to where the water deepened to dappled green and turning on to her back floated for a while, her hair spread like seaweed around her.
17	1) Rebecca had been Adele's nurse for some eight years 2) She left England 10 years ago and, according to the text at present Adele is in her late thirties, which means that she first came to live on the island in her late twenties. 3) She considered the lagoon her sanctuary because no one ever came there. 4) Adele suffered from a congenital heart complaint. 5) She wanted to escape from her own unhappy situation.
18	1) breeze sprang up = the pleasant wind emerged 2) as her due = take something for granted 3) congenital weakness = a disease that one was born with 4) particular sanctuary = one's loved place where one can go to escape from the routine 5) to face the day = to start performing all the unpleasant tasks during the day to be ready
19	1) trying = attempting 2) averse = hostile 3) fractious = unpleasant 4) languid = weak 5) bleaching = dying white
20	I suggest that the title should be "A BURDEN FROM PARADISE" since Rebecca found taking care of a woman tiring, but it was the only way for her to escape from her own unpleasant situation. Indeed, the lagoon was her own sanctuary, I would even call it a small paradise in her case.
