ВАРИАНТ № 2

Food waste is an emerging problem in the modern world. Nowadays, people are likely to throw away food they buy from shops and restaurants, and very few are ~~actually~~ concerned about the issue.

So, what is the reason behind the ~~massive~~ food waste? Well, people usually do not pay attention to such little matters as throwing away their leftovers. They ~~are convinced~~ ^{think} it is totally fine and does no harm to the environment. The majority of people ~~just~~ do not realize how their actions affect their surroundings. Some admit they are too lazy to even try to recycle the waste. ~~This is an international problem. What makes everything worse is that this is an international problem.~~

To reduce the amount of food we throw away, serious measures should be done. First of all, the government should become more strict with its food waste policy. No matter how loud the activists are, the majority of people will not take any action unless there is a real chance to get a fine. Moreover, if there is a guaranteed reward, people will always do everything possible to get it. This means the government should also encourage ~~people~~ citizens to take part in minimizing the food waste. Whether it is money or some sort of public recognition, a prize will surely boost people's enthusiasm to address the issue.

~~In conclusion~~ ^{In conclusion}, our society is ~~able to~~ ^{can} deal with food waste.

Although some people might not realize the harm throwing ~~the~~ food away does to the environment, it is definitely not late to solve the ~~current~~ problem yet.

16	Those who could pay, did. Those who could not brought her butter and cheese, fish, tortillas, eggs, and fiery pe pepper sauce. 2) "Rumor had it the speculator had gone bankrupt and that the doctor had bought the land from him. Some said she had money of her own and would build a great mansion..." 3) "... he could hear Mr. Baxter say, 'This is just like the fairy stories you used to tell me. A long time ago'."
17	A rumor 1) On weekdays On weekdays Mrs. Baxter attended to her patients and her daughter attended the local school. Also, they were at the the station every evening. 2) To stop believing in Mr. Baxter's existence would have been to admit that the hard and simple things of life - love, hope, faith were foolish and counted for nothing. 3) "... notice the thin, haggard man who got off the train..." ; "The man was handsome, but gaunt "; "He walked with the help of a cane."
18	1) prime ranchland - a big piece of land that must be expensive elite area 2) attended to her patients - visited and helped her patients 3) come evening - every evening 4) counted for nothing - did not matter / did not have any value 5) bury his face - hug
19	1) spot - see 2) parcel - area 3) alright - smile 4) gaunt - exhausted 5) wave off - say goodbye
20	Title: "A long-awaited reunion" "A long-awaited reunion". I suggest this title because the main part of the text is the reunion of Mrs. Baxter and her husband. The doctor has been waiting for Mr. Baxter for a long time, and the standing at the station with her daughter daughter every evening, and eventually the husband arrived. Mr. and Mrs. Baxter reunited after a long time not a meeting for a long time seeing each other for a long time.
