ТВОРЧЕСКОЕ ЗАДАНИЕ (лист 1)

ВАРИАНТ № 1

In many parts of the world, many people struggle to procure enough food for themselves. This is a serious issue humanity is faced with, and it is one that requires immediate attention to solve.

For us to eradicate this problem, we first need to identify the main causes of it. Firstly, many products and produce are being wasted everyday. Overconsumption and overproduction have made us forget the <sup>difficulty</sup> ~~importance~~ of acquiring food. When people have access to it all the time, they stop valuing it. Secondly, poverty and inequality are to blame. Most who do not have enough food are in third world and developing countries, where food is too expensive to buy or impossible to grow due to ~~a the~~ country's geographical location.

In order to solve the problem of the lack of food for many people, we need to eradicate the reasons behind it. Humanity needs to unite, to join together to create laws that forbid overconsumption and wastage of food as well as help the impoverished and the poor by moving forward their countries progress and donating food to them.

In conclusion not having enough food for everyone is a problem that we can all solve together.
That can be done by stopping the waste of food and lending a helping hand to those countries, who need it.

| 20 | I would suggest the title 'The calm before the storm' for this story. I believe the title fits, because before Rebecca has to face her unpleasant difficult patient Adele, which she fully describes in the story, she has the time to think, relax and enjoy herself in the nearby lagoon, her personal sanctuary.                                               |
