ВАРИАНТ № 1

Nowadays the problem of famine and lack of food is considered to be ^{impending} ~~vital~~ in many parts of the world.

However, the causes and effects of this issue are quite clear and there are several possible solutions to this problem.

Firstly, lack of food is provoked by overconsumption and food waste. People buy too much food each day and, as they simply ~~don't~~ ^{not} have time to consume it, all the leftovers go to waste. Secondly, insufficient crop yield is a major prerequisite of famine. When there is ~~is~~ not enough staple food for everyone in the particular region, even the help of other countries might not solve the problem.

Obviously, there are many measures which can be implemented to stabilize the amount of food required to suffice the population. Governments can combat food waste by limiting the amount of food ~~people are~~ ^{a person is} allowed to buy depending on the size of their ~~families~~ family. Moreover, the portions ~~of~~ in the upscale restaurants can be reduced in order to allocate food resources ~~in favor~~ to sustain the people in need. Furthermore, agricultural methods and devices should be upgraded to increase crop yield.

In conclusion, the problem of lack of food ~~is~~ still remains unsolved. However, with the implementation of the measures mentioned above the damage of overconsumption and ~~food~~.

16	1) not even the air conditioning could cope entirely with the damp heat 2) Adele had been particularly trying constant demands of a fractious, unhappy woman. Rebecca could not help but feel pity for her even though she knew that Adele would not appreciate such sentiments. 3) Rebecca swam strongly out to where the water deepened to dappled green and turning on to her back floated for a while, her hair spread like seaweed around her.
17	1) Rebecca had been Adele's nurse for two years; 2) Adele was in her late twenties when she first came to live on the island. 3) Rebecca considered the lagoon her sanctuary as no one ever came there. 4) Adele was afflicted with a heart complaint. 5) Rebecca agreed to become Adele's nurse because she herself wanted to escape from an unhappy situation.
18	1) light gusts of wind emerged 2) as her unassailable right 3) inability to accept other people as they are 4) her personal place of solitude, resort 5) to be ready to overcome the difficulties which the day may present
19	1) demanding 2) intolerant 3) capricious 4) unhealthy 5) dying
20	In my opinion, the story can be named "Escape from Reality" as both women, Adele and Rebecca, struggle to find a place in the fast-moving world. Hence, they both choose to withdraw leave their homes and their relatives to live in solitude by the ocean. Rebecca's lagoon and Adele's illness are their new realities.
