ВАРИАНТ № 1

There are lots of discussions about various global problems existing in the world. One of the most dreadful and threatening is hunger. Seldom do we ~~see~~ hear about, for instance, Africa in other context. However, ~~not~~ what can we do about that?

In my view the main reason to this is ^atotal ignorance of the government. In such developing states there are lots of different issues, not only hunger, but also crimes, awful medicine, poor education and corruption. Therefore, there ~~is~~ are not enough sources to solve ~~at~~ every problem, and while "big economies" are immersed into politics and intrigues, such poor countries are ~~then~~ trying to ~~survive~~ not to collapse.

The one and only thing we all can do to save these countries is to unite our strengths and ~~sources~~ sources in order to be more empathic and ~~ever~~ caring for others. The government can imply different methods, for example, emerge voluntary missions to such states or launch charity foundations to make a collective ~~donate~~ donation. Nonetheless, we all should remind ourselves about how happy we are to live in a prosperity.

To conclude, nobody should forget about ~~a~~ countries with needing people. The winning over the world's hunger will be possible only with the teamwork and global ~~cooperation~~ cooperation. I think it is relateable to many global problems, ~~too if we are able to beat the hunger, we will be able to go through anything.~~ in our world.
