ВАРИАНТ № 2

In the past ~~centuary~~, decade, numerous ~~enviromental~~ environmental problems have started to catch the attention of the mass media with the most infamous one being wasted food.

~~This may come off as a surprise to many as the act of throwing away food which became bad doesn't seem seem to have any negative effects, which is why that will be our point of discussion for today.~~

~~First things foremost, the main danger of wasting food is overexertion of resources. it's important to understand why the underlying~~

~~This may come off as a surprise, however recent figures show that that wasted food ~~has~~ is now the most threatening becoming more and more of a problem so it must be stopped soon now.~~

~~First things foremost, in order to ~~combat~~ ^{combat} wasted food we must understand the underlying roots of this phenomenon. ~~The~~ ^{In recent years,} ~~the~~ ~~market~~ market in recent years has become the most competitive than it ever has been, leading to companies and individual farmers to ~~race~~ ^{compete} for the cheapest price.~~

This has ~~led~~ led to ~~the~~ ~~des~~ a decrease in quality of ~~the~~ products, ^{that, coupled with} ~~as well as~~ the general increase in wages has ~~re~~ resulted in food ~~too~~ losing its value ~~x~~ so much so that people ~~often~~ ^{no longer} ~~by~~ buy food ~~simply for the sake of it.~~ ^{if they eventually throw it away or not.}

So, what can be done in order ^{to} reduce the amount of food we ~~to~~ throw away?
The most logical thing would be to ~~increa~~ raise the price ~~at~~ ^{of} ~~on~~ food. According to recent studies, a ~~meas~~ mere 10% increase in ~~the~~ prices would be enough to make food valuable again. The new price tags would still be affordable to everyone ~~but~~ ^{and} ~~plus~~ the quality of ~~the~~ products would be way better.

16	1) Those who could pay, did. Those who could not brought her her butter and cheese, fish, tortillas, eggs, and fiery pepper sauce. 2) Rumor had it the speculator had gone bankrupt and that the doctor... Some said she had money of her own and would build a great mansion... 3) ... he could hear Mr. Baxter say, "This is just like the fairy stories you used to tell me. A long time ago."
17	1) It was quite ordinary for the most part except for the fact Mrs. Baxter worked during weekday while Charlotte attend the local school, save for the fact that each evening they were waiting for Mr. Baxter at the station. 2) Because it was more logical to believe that Mr. Baxter exists, as otherwise Mrs. Baxter and Charlotte would be crazy which clearly isn't true. 3) ... thin, haggard man... The man was handsome, but gaunt... saw him bend down...
18	1) prestige area of land designated for farming 2) treat or examine her patients 3) every evening 4) did not affect anything against something 5) to place your face in a way so that it's not visible in a way which makes it impossible to see it fully.
19	1) spot - to notice 2) parcel - part 3) alight - to exclaim 4) gaunt - sickly tired 5) wave off - to gesture a goodbye
20	Title: Passionate Doctor My suggested title still works as the title of the short story as it represents Mrs. Baxter's passion towards her job, treating even those patients who are unable to pay in money, and her devotion to her husband, waiting for him to come home every evening on the train station together with her daughter.
