ВАРИАНТ № 1

For those who live in developed ^{countries} the issue of food scarcity is not that evident. ~~and~~ However, in many other parts of the world there is not enough food for everyone. The problem needs rapid actions.

Apparently, there are plenty of reasons for the lack of food in the world. Firstly, the resources can be limited and it ~~can~~ ^{might} be hard to have proper harvests to make food in developing countries. Moreover, ^{in many countries the authorities distribute the food} ~~people often times cannot find jobs and~~ and it is done unfairly ^{that's why people don't receive proper nutrition.} ~~therefore cannot feed themselves.~~ Lastly, the overall world food consumption makes the manufacturers produce more which, in turn, leads to food shortage in the areas of production.

Obviously, to solve this problem countries all over the world must consolidate. The most effective way to address this issue is for the developed countries such as Canada, the UK and Germany to subsidize countries ~~who~~ which suffer from food scarcity and to send humanitarian aid there. What's more, ~~introd~~ introducing new seeds and products to developing countries can contribute to the growth in the amount of food production.

In conclusion, the lack of food is a global problem which requires cooperation of all countries. ~~and~~ In the case of food scarcity not only the governments but individuals as well must help to address the problem.

Вариант № 1

16	1) The humidity throughout the long day had been exhausting and not even the air conditioning could cope entirely with the damp heat 2) a) the constant demands of a fretful, unhappy woman b) her congenital weakness was to blame c) a heart complaint that had crippled to some extent her mind 3) Rebecca swam strongly out to where the water deepened to dappled green and turning to on to her back floated for a while
17	1) Rebecca had been Adele's nurse for about 2 years 2) Adele was in her late twenties when she first came to live on the island 3) Rebecca considered the lagoon her sanctuary because no one came there and she could rest 4) Adele was afflicted with a heart disease 5) Rebecca agreed to become Adele's nurse to escape an unhappy situation
18	1) a light wind started to blow 2) as her duty 3) innate flaw 4) space special place to relax 5) to stop to start to do some tasks throughout the day
19	1) attempting 2) unfriendly 3) ill 4) lethargic 5) colourless
20	My suggestion for the title is "A man needs a man". I believe that it suits the story because it is evident from the text that Rebecca develops sympathy towards Adele and her disease. Even though Adele doesn't accept any sentiments, she still needs help and attention from Rebecca and anyone in general.
