ВАРИАНТ № 2

Today, people often waste food, and that is a big problem. Wasted food means wasted resources, and resources are very important for the future ~~and~~ of humanity. That is why food waste needs to ~~stop~~ be stopped.

Why do people waste food? Well, the main reason is leftover food in grocery stores is thrown away at the end of the day. If people don't buy food while it is still fresh, it will be gotten rid of.

So, how exactly can we prevent it? Well, we should organize an environmental movement called "Wasteless Earth". The main goal of this movement is to help supermarkets in my country to sell products more efficiently. This will be achieved by means of advertisements, social media posts and discounts on food products. I know that it will be effective. Another way of reducing the amount of food thrown away by people is making people become interested in cooking. This can be done with the help of cooking shows that have new recipes in them. It will captivate people to buy ~~more~~ more products and also diversify their everyday meals.

All in ~~all~~, food waste can be fought if people work together. We can unite to change the world.

20	I think the title of the story should be "Have hope". This is because the moral of the story is about not losing hope and being able to wait and have good expectations. Juan Ramos didn't let up, just as Mrs. Baxter, and they waited for Mr. Baxter's train to come, wishing to see him.
