Nowadays, AI plays a vital role in our lives. Some people even claim that AI has a full potential of taking over the globe. But why does this problem appear in the modern world?

Firstly, AI is becoming more advanced every day. Back in 2000-s it could complete only simple tasks and was being developed at a slower pace. Nowadays, with AI gaining more power and becoming more advanced, it seems that there is no limit in its functions, which means that it can complete more and more tasks instead of humans. Secondly, people's attitude to AI also matters. AI can be seen as a great assistant in some tasks, but only until humans use it as a form of "side help". Nowadays, many people refuse to do their tasks themselves and gain knowledge since they know AI can do it for them. This means that humanity depends on AI, not on people's knowledge and experience.

All these problems can be solved by limiting the functions of AI. This way people will be motivated to do their tasks themselves and will become more independent in terms of knowledge and skills. It is also a great idea to raise awareness of how AI can be used safely and rationally without it fully doing your job for you.

16	1) "... ushered her into a dark foyer", " ... a parlor every bit as gloomy as the foyer". 2) "it has good bones", "It's a shame to let a lovely house like that just die." 3) "A mere fraction of what it was worth".
17	1) "... a ruminative expression on her face" 2) Because no other place in New York would have a tearoom with tea roses in the backyard. 3) "Miss Nicholson was listening intently" 4) "... mortified at admitting this to a stranger." 5) ^{The fact that her experience was similar to Fiona's}
18	1) a cliché character of an old lady 2) to be a unique feature, make the place special 3) to present a story in a full and encouraging way. 4) succeeding in persuading 5) play with her, trick her
19	1) loved one 2) serious 3) to destroy 4) compassionate 5) piece
20	The title: "Relatives by broken hearts" I believe this title suits the story the best since it highlights how a broken heart can bring people together. Miss Nicholson didn't want to sell the house until she learned that Fiona had gone through the same pain as hers. She felt related to her problem and was sympathetic, which finally persuaded her to sell the house to Fiona.
