WE NEED PEOPLE WITH GREEN FINGERS

It's not a surprise that life isn't a bed of ~~of~~ roses especially for those, who have to fight for their life daily. One of the contemporary reasons of this combat is the lack of food. So, let's discuss ~~what~~ what lies behind it and what can be done to ~~solve~~ tackle this problem.

Talking about the ~~probable~~ reasons, I can say that one of them is some natural factors: the ~~quality~~ of water, the soil, the rains, the heat and so on. These factors leave their mark on ~~the quantity and the quality of~~ fruit, vegetables, crops and so on. The second reason is the lack of ~~the~~ modern machines and specialists that could lead to coming over all the difficulties ~~and growing food in the laboratories or in any conditions.~~

So, it's my firm believe that the key solution is the people! What I mean is that the first key to success is some specialists in the field of Biology, who can ~~'create'~~ 'create' food using special ~~techniques~~ machines, methods. Scientists and professionals know how to made everything from nothing, ~~how to use resources properly.~~ Well, the second solution is to make special groups and communities of young volunteers who like planting ~~greenery~~ ~~and the nature.~~ They're active, energetic and ~~some~~ some of them are really gifted. ~~which can lead to break through in growing the food.~~

So, we need to encourage ~~these~~ these two 'groups' with help of media and take them to all the countries in need.

All in all, let's use our brains to help others.
