5	Nowadays, it's a key concern to keep the planet ecologically stable. The use of paper and plastic for educational supplies is rising by leaps and bound, so computer-based learning would be perfect to care about Earth, unlike traditional, which is actually one of main purposes of cutting down trees, killing ink-octopuses etc.

20	Such effects of climate changes as floods are ^{now} not the main problem. It's actually a collective trauma - of stress, shared by thousands of people, but, unfortunately, not treated well. Now to be To help, PTMF system was designed, so overwhelmed people can practise self-care and others have a knowledge about supporting. "Climate anxiety" must not be ignored and many believe that PTMF and sooner governments will help.
