ТЕСТ. БЛОК 2.

10-11 классы

Вариант № 3

16	1) 2. He led her into a parlor every bit as gloomy as the fog. 14. "My building's in terrible condition." 2) 17. "It's a shame to let a lovely house like that just die, Miss Nicholson." 18. "It's a bit of a wreck, but it has good bones." 3) 53. A mere fraction of what it was worth.
17	1) Sentence 3 proves that Miss Nicholson was still in mourning for her unfortunate love. 2) Because no one else in New York would have a tearoom with tea roses in the backyard. 3) Sentence 36 proves that Miss Nicholson wasn't uninterested in Fiona's story. 4) Sentence 48 shows that Fiona wasn't used to discussing her personal life with strangers. 5) Fiona's story about an unfortunate love of her own ultimately made Miss Nicholson change her mind and agree to sell the house to Fiona.
18	1) a pleasant old woman 2) to fit something 3) to spill out one's emotions 4) to convince her 5) fooled her
19	1) loved one 2) intense 3) crush 4) thoughtful thoughtful 5) a part
20	I would title this story as "Shared Loss", since this story shows how Fiona manages to win Miss Nicholson over by revealing a tragedy of her own, linked with love. Miss Nicholson sympathizes with her and decides to let Fiona buy the house at a lower price, showing that she understands Fiona's pain all too well.

ТВОРЧЕСКОЕ ЗАДАНИЕ (лист 1)

ВАРИАНТ № 3

Many people express concern over the rapid development of AI. Some are afraid of AI completely replacing human workers, while the others think that AI will kill all humans and reign supreme. Let's delve deeper into the situation we have on our hands.

First, in my opinion, AI helps niche communities on the Internet, as it allows people generate things they had to pay artists for in the past completely free of charge. This causes AI to get more and more popular.

Then, looking at the market, we can see how AI technologies keep getting more advanced and popular. This is because all international IT-companies are trying to promote AI and integrate it into their systems. Although some consumers complain about unnecessary AI functions, the AI market continues to grow.

However, not all people enjoy this rise of AI and want solutions to help keep AI technologies in check. One solution is to simply wait, as, the way it is, the AI market is repeating the fate of other previously new technologies and shows signs of a bubble, which will eventually burst. There are, however, other and more proactive approaches,
