ВАРИАНТ № 1

In many parts of the world there is not enough food for everyone. People are starving and fighting for their lives in order to survive. But why some countries have enough food and others don't? What can we do?

In fact, there are a lot of problems, which can cause lack of food. In my opinion, the main reason is poverty. The government doesn't have enough resources. Mostly it's such countries as Bangladesh, Nigeria, Mexico, etc. In those countries there are high rates of non-working people and lack of resources, so the economy of the country is not at their best.

But what can people do in order to have enough food? Sadly, there are not so many things we can do... But if you're willing to help, you can find donation organizations, which help people by providing food, money and other things. You can also volunteer in some countries yourself to help people there and sponsor them with necessary food.

Sadly, not many people know about the lack of food in some countries but if we raise public awareness, prevent food waste, we can actually help many people and improve their lives so they won't think if they will be able to survive the next day.

16	1) "The humidity throughout the long day had been exhausting and not even the air conditioning could cope entirely with the damp heat". 2) 1. Adel was born with a heart complaint that had crippled her life... 2. This was the time of day she liked best when she could cast herself into the creamy waters of the lagoon and pretend the day ahead of her would not be filled with the constant demands of a fractious, unhappy woman. 3. Rebecca could not help but feel pity for her even though she knew that Adel would not appreciate such sentiments. 3) "Rebecca swam strongly out to where the water deepened to dappled green and turning on to her back floated for a while..."
17	1) for a few years. The story didn't mention a particular period 2) She was in her late twenties 3) Because no one ever came here. The beach belonged to the villa and Adel never used it so Rebecca had come to regard it as her own. 4) With a heart complaint 5) She wanted to escape from an unhappy situation
18	1) breeze appeared 2) 3) weakness, which you're born with 4) a place where you feel content 5) to meet the new day
19	1) working 2) 3) unhappy 4) exhausted 5)
20	I suggest a title "Rebecca and a demanding patient with unhappy life. Days in the villa" since the story tells us about the unhappy but demanding patient with congenital weakness and her nurse Rebecca, who lived with her in the villa on the island. The story describes the days and gives background information about the patient.
