ВАРИАНТ № 1

In many parts of the world, there is not enough food for everyone. One of the causes of this issue is wasting food. Sometimes people bite off more than they can chew, and buying ^{too much} ~~is wasted~~ food is an example of that. Keep in mind though that food gets wasted not only because of the customers' careless planning, but because of companies as well. Some may offer bulk discounts that affect the amount of wasted food drastically, and some go as far as destroying their leftover products just to keep the prices high. ~~The solutions for this situation could include~~ Some possible solutions for this situation could include ending bulk discounts, searching for and eliminating companies that destroy food for price increases, and educating people about this issue.

The problem of food deficits could also arise in regions that struggle with harvests. Although harvesting crops, vegetables and fruits is easier now than it was centuries ago, regions with harsh climate conditions are still troubled with it so they have to resort to buying food from other regions, which increases the products' price and makes it difficult for people to afford more of it. Another issue related to harvests is the food that's filled with chemicals that are injected into it to make it grow faster, resulting in many products that are dangerous to eat. These issues require the harvesting technologies to be enhanced.

16	1) The humidity throughout the long day had been exhausting and not even the air conditioning could cope entirely with the damp heat. 2) "The constant demands of a fractious, unhappy woman"; "Adele had been particularly trying thing"; "ready to face the day" 3) Rebecca swam strongly out to where the water deepened to lapped green and turning on to her back floated for a while, her hair spread like seaweed around her.
17	1) Rebecca had been Adele's nurse for roughly two years. 2) Adele was in her twenties when she first came to live on the island. 3) Rebecca considered the lagoon her sanctuary because no one except herself came here. 4) Adele was afflicted with a heart complaint. 5) Rebecca agreed to be Adele's nurse because Adele was advertising for a new nurse.
18	1) breeze sprang up - breeze suddenly blew 2) as her due - 3) congenital weakness - weak, slow thinking 4) particular sanctuary - one's own place of rest 5) to face the day - to deal with the day's the troubles.
19	trying - trying annoying averse - unlike fractious - annoyed languid - frail bleaching - clearing (of color)
20	I suggest the title "A nurse's sanctuary and a troublesome patient". I chose this particular title as it is able to convey the key themes of the story: the theme of nurse Rebecca, whose sanctuary is a lagoon, and the theme of Adele, who is a patient that's difficult to deal with.
