It is common knowledge that Artificial Intelligence is used for creating fantastic images and writing texts.

However, it is believed that AI is taking over the globe. In my opinion, there are several causes of it. Firstly, people stop coming up with their own ideas as they rely on AI. They are not creative anymore. It is easier to ask a well-known GPT Chat to do your homework or write an essay than to rack your brains. Secondly, AI is programmed to learn ^{on} its mistakes. It means that Artificial Intelligence becomes more and more independent from us. One day we will stop controlling it and AI will do whatever it wants.

By the way, the situation is getting out of control and it is a serious problem. There are several solutions to it. For example, artists, students, writers etc. should continue training their brains. To do so, it is crucial to read a lot of books, visit art galleries, develop ^{soft} communication skills and ~~solve~~ solve solve puzzles. ~~Similarly~~, Moreover, programmers and scientists have to ~~always~~ make sure that AI's abilities are limited via special codes, ~~and programs~~.

In conclusion, AI is a fascinating tool for creating images and texts. Nevertheless, there is a high risk of losing control of it. It is important to be cautious while using it.

16	1. "... ushered her into a dark foyer" ... "He led her into a parlour every bit as gleaming as the foyer" 2. "It's a shame to let a lovely house like that just die" "It's a bit of a wreck, but it has good bones" 3. "A mere fraction of what it was worth"
17	1. "She wore a crisp black silk dress with a ruff of white lace at her throat" 2. No one else in New York would have a tea room with tea roses in the backyard ^{parlour}. This place would be very unusual: Tea room with tea roses. 3. "But Miss Nicholson abruptly cut her off, saying she had no interest in renting the building." 4. "... she said quickly, mortified at admitting this to a stranger." 5. the fact that Fiona had an unfortunate love too and a desire to make her business flourish.
18	1. a soft, kind old woman 2. turn the place into something unusual and attractive, highlighting its peculiarities 3. to become sad, emphasize empathetic and sentimental 4. ^{successfully} persuading someone to do what you want 5. playing with her emotions and expectations and ^{later} disappointed on purpose
19	1. a fiancée 2. perceptive 3. throw 4. deeply thoughtful 5. a tiny part
20	This story can be named "Rose-coloured glasses". This idiom stands for biased ideas that may lead to disappointment. Moreover, you can literally smell the bloom of tea roses while reading the story and this fact is connected with the title. Will these glasses be broken? You will know if you read the end of the story.
