Nowadays, people waste a lot of food they buy from shops and restaurants — and that's not only a display of disrespect to human and our planet resources — but also a ~~cause~~ cause of many problems like pollution, for instance. So why do people waste food? Actually, we usually don't tend to respect what we have in abundance — why bother, if we can buy another piece of cake or a packet of milk anytime. It's hard for us to imagine empty shelves in a supermarket — and even though it is unlikely to happen, we should stop our mindless consumerism to prevent it.

Firstly, we have to start with ourselves. Stop buying extra products we aren't sure we would need, and be more attentive to the expiration dates, too. And even if your milk is not so fresh anymore — don't rush to throw it away — give it a second chance and make pancakes! Secondly, environmental organisation and the government should raise ~~awareness~~ awareness on this issue — create some educational campaigns or even legislative measures — like banning ~~the~~ supermarkets from organising their "buy 2 and get 1 for free" events that only encourage consumerism.

And in conclusion, I would like to say that we should be more reasonable and respectful in general — to the people who grow and make our food, to the animals we eat, and to our planet that provides us with everything we need.

Вариант № 2

16	1) "Those who could pay, did. Those who could not brought her butter and cheese, fish, tortillas, eggs, and fiery pepper sauce." 2) "Rumor had it the speculator had gone bankrupt and that the doctor had bought the land from him. Some said she had money of her own and would build a great mansion..." 3) "...he could hear Mr. Baxter say, 'This is just like the fairy stories you used to tell me.'"
17	1) On weekdays Mrs. Baxter attended to her patients, and her daughter attended the local school. And And every evening they went to the station to meet the 5:15 from San Francisco. 2) Mr. Ramos couldn't stop believing in Mr. Baxter because to do so would have been to admit that love, hope and faith counted for nothing. 3) "...the thin, haggard man..." "...handsome, but gaunt.", "He walked with the help of a cane."
18	1) farmland of a good quality — with a big territory and fertile soil 2) visited her patients and took medical care of them 3) when the evening comes 4) didn't mean anything, had no value or importance 5) hug tightly and put his head on her shoulder
19	1) notice 2) territory 3) dismount 4) weak 5) say goodbye
20	"The power of hope" would be the best option for a title because it depicts how hopeful, faithful and dedicated Mrs. Baxter was to her husband, ^{and} that one day her patience finally paid off.
