ВАРИАНТ № 1

In many parts of the world, there is not enough food for everyone. I think it can cause ~~high~~ people waste a lot of food from cafes and restaurants. Also primary cause is climate change, extreme weather events like a tornado, volcanic eruptions or earthquakes. Additionally, population growth intensifies the demand for food. To solve this problem people should improve agricultural methods practices and methods to protect the environment. Investing in ~~new~~ modern technology and infrastructure will help reduce waste and improve distribution efficiency. Also people can use AI to growing artificial fruits and vegetables ~~and~~ and create new sorts. By combining different strategies people can solve this problem. Furthermore, ~~raising~~ raising awareness about food conservation can encourage individuals and businesses to minimize waste. By combining these strategies we can work towards a more equitable food system that ensures everyone has access to sufficient nourishment.
