ВАРИАНТ № 2

It is fair to say that the ^{problem} ~~question~~ of environmental ^{crisis} ~~awareness~~ in general and food ^{ing food} ~~wastage~~ in particular has never been as crucial as it is now. ^{More often than ever,} ~~More often than ever,~~ ~~food~~ The general public's attention is ^{being} ~~drawn~~ to the aforementioned ~~issues~~. In today's essay, I will make assumptions ~~on~~ about the reasons of the people throwing food away and suggest possible ways of ~~so~~ dealing with that.

~~To~~ First of all, I would like to highlight the influence that the technical progress had on the development of human race. That is to say, ~~every~~ ~~part~~ most parts of an average ~~person's~~ life has changed dramatically thanks to it. One of the examples is the total availability of any kind of food imaginable. That ~~is~~ has become a reason for ~~people~~ ~~human~~ not to value the food they get ~~have~~. Another ~~reason~~ for this is that ~~peop~~ ~~we~~ do not work in the field to get the food anymore. ~~The reward we get for our labour is not the food itself, but the money, which makes us think of the food as of an option of spending it, not the initial goal of working.~~ ^{nourishment}

In my opinion, there ~~seve~~ are several things to be made to reduce the amount of food wasted. Firstly, the government should ~~ban~~ ~~industrial~~ ~~throwing~~ ~~a~~ shops and restaurants from utilizing the food that ~~were~~ ~~n't~~ was not sold. ~~Ints~~ Instead of this, the entrepreneurs should give away these goods to the poor. Secondly, ^{starting} ~~a~~ ~~mass~~ agitation against wasting food ~~should be started~~ may be a good idea.

To sum up, the problem of wasting food ~~is~~ definitely deserves the attention it gets. ~~All the peo~~ People should do everything they can in order to ^{solve} ~~defeat~~ it.

16	1) Those who could pay, did. Those who could not brought her butter and cheese, fish, tortillas, eggs, and fiery pepper sauce. 2) Rumor had it <...> the doctor had bought the land from him. Some said she had money of her own <...>. 3) "This is just like the fairy stories you used to tell me."
17	1) They would meet ^{were met} the ^{at} the 5:15 train from San Francisco every day. 2) Mr. Ramos couldn't stop believing in Mr. Baxter's existence because that would mean to betray his faith in ^{admit} admittance admit that love, hope, and faith were foolish things. 3) He did not, at first, notice the thin haggard man who got off the train after everyone else. The man was handsome, but gaunt. He walked with the help of a cane.
18	1) the major or the best land suitable for ranch of the highest quality 2) visited her patients' houses 3) when the evening comes 4) were worthless 5) put his face close ^{on} really ^{to} the doctor's neck while hugging her
19	1) notice 2) part 3) shine 4) thin 5) farewell
20	In my personal opinion, a ^{the} "A Long Way Home" would be the perfect title for this story. First of all, it reflects all the hardships Mr. Baxter had to come through in order to finally meet his ^{wife and daughter} family. Secondly, it contains the metaphor of an ^{his} the ^{family's} unsuppressable ^{unsuppressable} hope for ^{for} him re ^{eventually} returning.
